Subject: Termination License to operate games of chance.

Dear Sirs,

We hereby inform you that Jack's House B.V. (the "Company") has concluded its operation of providing online games of chance and therefore requests to terminate its license for same with immediate effect.

Please note the following:

- The reason for termination of the license is that the group of which the Company belongs to is no longer interested in pursue operation in the field of online gaming.
- The Company has not received any outstanding player inquiries or claims. The Company's Telegram channel remained open for player communication, and also maintain a dedicated support email address — neither of which have received any inbound messages. The operation has been inactive since September 2025.
- To ensure appropriate coverage for any potential late-arriving claims, the Company is prepared to allocate $20,000 into a reserve account for an additional month. This reserve will be used to immediately address and resolve any legitimate player claims or deposit-related requests should they arise during
- The Company is not transferring the player base.

Yours sincerely,

Jack's House B.V.
