Acquisition of own shares —

Article 10 —

1. The acquisition by the company of shares in its capital that have not — been fully paid up shall be void. —
2. Fully paid up shares in the company may be acquired by the company — only where all the following provisions have been met : —
  - a. the resolution to acquire fully paid up shares in the company shall be — taken by the general meeting; —
  - b. the equity of the company, less the acquisition price, is at least equal — to the nominal capital; —
  - c. after the acquisition of the shares by the company at least one share — shall remain outstanding with others than the company itself. —
3. The general meeting has the power to resolve to cancel one or more — shares of the company held in its own capital. —
4. The general meeting has the power to resolve to wholly or partially pay — back to the shareholders the amount of the paid in capital or to exempt — the shareholders from their obligation to pay up the shares, provided that — after such repayment or exemption the equity of the company is at least — equal to the nominal value of the issued capital. —

Transfer of Shares —

Article 11 —

1. A transfer of shares or of a restricted right thereto requires a deed of — transfer, which transfer shall be recognised by the company or served by — a bailiff on the company. —
2. In case a share certificate has been issued, the transfer shall be — endorsed on the share certificate and shall be recognised by the — company on the same certificate or by written recognition of the transfer — to the acquirer of the shares. The managing board may decide that the — share certificate be handed over to the company and to issue new share — certificate(s) to the acquirer(s). —

Restrictions of transfer/general duty of notification —

Article 12 —

1. A transfer of shares is contingent on the shares first having been offered — for sale to the shareholders in the manner prescribed in the following — paragraphs. —

2. The shareholder, hereinafter referred to as "offeror", shall notify the board of managing directors of the shares he wishes to transfer.
3. Such notification shall constitute an offer to the co-shareholders to sell the shares. Where the company holds shares in the company's capital it shall be understood as being a co-shareholder only if the offeror in his offer has agreed thereto.
The share price shall, unless the shareholders unanimously agree otherwise, be determined by one or more independent experts to be appointed by the shareholders by mutual agreement. If the shareholders fail to reach agreement on this matter within six weeks of receipt of notice of the offer referred to in paragraph 5 below, a petition to appoint three independent experts shall be brought by either party before the Court of First Instance in Curaçao.
4. The experts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be empowered to inspect the books and documents of the company and to obtain any information assisting the task of valuation.
5. The board of managing directors shall within fourteen days of receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 2 notify the co-shareholders of the offer made by the offeror and shall notify each shareholder of the share price within fourteen days of the share price being established by the experts or agreed by the shareholders.
6. Notwithstanding what is provided in paragraph 8, the board of managing directors, if notified by each co-shareholder within the period stipulated in that paragraph, shall without delay notify the offeror that the offer has not or not fully been taken up.
7. Shareholders who intend to purchase the shares offered for sale shall notify the board of managing directors of that intention within thirty days of receiving notification of the share price in accordance with paragraph 5.
8. The board of managing directors shall allot the offered shares to the applicants and shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of the allocation within fourteen days of expiry of the period specified in paragraph 7.
To the extent that the shares have not been allotted the board of managing directors shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of that fact within the period referred to in this paragraph.
9. The shares shall be allotted by the board of managing directors as follows:
  - a. pro rata to the nominal value of the shares held by the applicants;
  - b. shares may be allotted to the company only if no application for such shares has been made by the other co-shareholders;
  - c. to the extent that shares cannot be allotted on the basis of proportionality the allotment shall be determined by the drawing of lots;on the understanding in all matters that no-one may be allotted a greater number of shares than that applicant has applied for.

10. The offeror may withdraw his offer at any time provided he does so — within one month after he has been notified of the shareholders to whom and at what price he may sell the shares offered. —
  11. The shares sold shall, against immediate payment of the purchase price, be transferred within eight days of expiration of the period during which — the offer may be withdrawn. —
  12. The offeror may freely transfer the offered shares within a period of three months following the notification referred to in paragraph 8 has been — given that the offer has not or not fully been taken up. —
  13. The experts referred to in paragraph 3 shall determine fairly who shall — bear the costs of valuation. They may determine that the company shall — bear the costs wholly or in part. —
  14. The provisions of this Article shall, as far as possible, apply mutatis — mutandis to the disposal of shares purchased or otherwise acquired by — the company. —
  15. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to transfers to which every — shareholder has notified the company that observance of the provisions — may be waived. —
- Transfers of shares may then take place only within the succeeding — period of three months. —

Special duty of notification

Article 13

1. In the event of the death, grant of suspension of payment, bankruptcy, — guardianship or dissolution of the matrimonial property regime of a — shareholder otherwise than upon death, as well as upon the dissolution — of a legal person being a shareholder and where a legal person being a — shareholder ceases to exist in consequence of a legal merger, the — shares shall be offered to the company in accordance with the following — paragraphs. —
  2. If an obligation exists to offer shares for sale the provisions of Article 12 — shall apply mutatis mutandis except that the offeror: —
    - a. shall not have the right to withdraw the offer in accordance with — paragraph 10 of that Article; —
    - b. may retain the shares where the offer has not or not fully been taken — up. —
  3. The person under an obligation to offer for sale one or more shares shall within thirty days of the obligation arising - in the case referred to in — paragraph 6 under b, upon expiration of the period of time referred to in — that paragraph - notify the board of managing directors of the offer to — sell. In the absence of notification the board of managing directors shall — inform the person under the obligation to offer shares for sale of such — failure to notify and bring the terms of the preceding sentence to his — attention. —
- If that person still fails to notify the company within eight days the — company shall offer the shares for sale on behalf of the shareholder — concerned and if all of the shares offered for sale are taken up shall —

- transfer the shares to the purchaser(s) upon payment of the purchase price. The company possesses an irrevocable power so to act.
4. The company shall, in the event of a transfer of shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph, pay to the person or persons on whose behalf the offer was made the net balance of the purchase price after deduction of any costs attaching to the transaction.
  5. In consequence of the obligation to offer shares for sale pursuant to the provisions of this Article and while that obligation exists, the rights attaching to a share, in so far as the shareholder is entitled to such rights, cannot be exercised while and for as long as the shareholder fails to fulfil that obligation.
  6. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply:
    - a. where all the remaining shareholders have given notice of waiver of the obligation to satisfy those provisions;
    - b. where, in the event of the dissolution of the matrimonial property regime otherwise than upon the death of a shareholder, the shares are transferred within a period of twenty-four months of the dissolution to the spouse to whose share of the matrimonial property the shares attach;

Management of the company

Article 14

1. The management of the company shall be borne by the board of managing directors which shall consist of one or more managing directors. Legal entities may also act as managing directors.
2. Managing directors shall be appointed by the general meeting which may, at any time, suspend or remove them.
3. The remuneration and other conditions of appointment shall be set by the general meeting for each managing director individually.
4. In the event of the absence or non-appearance of a managing director the remaining managing director(s) remain charged with the management of the company. In the event of the absence or non-appearance of every managing director the general meeting shall appoint one or more persons who shall be charged with temporary management of the company. Every shareholder shall be entitled to convene such general meeting.

Representation

Article 15

1. The authority to represent the company shall vest in every managing director individually.
