2.3 Notes to the Financial Statements

General

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the stipulations of Chapter 9, Book 2 of the Curaçao Civil Code and accounting principles generally accepted in the Netherlands.

Income and expenses are accounted for on an accrual basis. Profit is only recognised when realised as at the balance sheet date. Liabilities and any losses originating before the end of the financial year are taken into account if they became known prior to the preparation of the financial statements.

Continuity

These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The going concern assumption implies that the Company will continue its operations for the foreseeable future and will be able to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business.

Management is of the opinion that the Company's shareholders or other group companies will provide the necessary support should the above assumption not be realised. Consequently, the Company has applied accounting principles based on the going concern basis.

Translation of foreign currency

Receivables, liabilities and obligations denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date.

Transactions in foreign currencies during the financial year are recognised in the financial statements at the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction date. Exchange differences resulting from the translation at the balance sheet date, taking into account any hedge transactions, are recognised in the statement of income and expenses.

Valuation of assets and liabilities

General

Assets and liabilities are generally valued at historical cost, unless stated otherwise. Valuation and determination of the result take place in accordance with the cost model.

Financial assets

Financial assets, including trade and other receivables and amounts due from related parties, are valued at amortised cost, less any provision for doubtful debts where appropriate.

Accounts receivable

Upon initial recognition, receivables are measured at nominal (face) value and subsequently at amortised cost. Provisions for potential bad debt losses are deducted, based on an individual assessment of each receivable.

Equity

Financial instruments are classified as equity if they have the substance of equity instruments, irrespective of their legal form.

Current liabilities

Upon initial recognition, current liabilities are stated at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Accounting policies – determination of result

Turnover

Turnover represents amounts invoiced for goods and services supplied during the reporting period, net of discounts and value added tax. Revenue from services is recognised in proportion to the stage of completion of the service. The cost of these services is allocated to the same period.

Other operating expenses

Costs are recognised based on the historical cost convention and are allocated to the period to which they relate.

Net financial result

Interest income and expenses comprise interest received from or paid to third parties.

Taxation

Corporate income tax is calculated at the applicable rate on the result for the financial year, taking into account permanent differences between accounting profit and taxable profit. Deferred tax assets (if applicable) are only recognised where their realisation is considered probable.

The Company is incorporated in Curaçao and is subject to the general corporate income tax regime at a rate of 22%. For the financial year ended 31 December 2025, no corporate income tax liability arises as the Company realised a loss for the period. No deferred tax asset has been recognised in respect of this loss, as its future utilisation is considered uncertain. The Company will assess its final tax position upon submission of the tax return for the financial year.
