COMPANIES LAW (CAP. 113)

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNILOGIX LIMITED

PREAMBLE

Unless the context otherwise requires words or expressions contained in these regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Companies Law Cap. 113 or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company.

Subject to the exceptions and privileges hereinafter provided the Regulations of Part 1 of the Table A of the First Schedule of Cap. 113 with the exception of Regulations 11, 24, 25(a), 53, 58, 60, 77, 79, 88 (a), 89 - 93, 98, 111(a), 112 and 113 shall apply and it is considered that when the Company has one and sole member, Part 3 of "Table A" of the First Schedule shall apply. In case of conflict the present regulations prevail.

NATURE OF COMPANY

1. The Company is a private Company, and consequently:
 - (a) The right to transfer shares is restricted in manner hereinafter prescribed.
 - (b) The number of members of the Company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company and of persons who having been formerly in the employment of the Company were while in such employment and have continued after termination of such employment to be members of the Company) is limited to fifty. Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly they shall for the purpose of this Article be treated as a single member.
 - (c) Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company is prohibited.
 - (d) The Company shall not have power to issue shares or share warrants to bearer.

RIGHT OF LIEN

2. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all monies (whether immediately payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all monies immediately payable by him or his estate to the Company but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

SHARE CAPITAL

3. The company may from time to time by special resolution increase its share capital by such amount to be divided in shares of such amount and to be issued to such persons and under such terms as the resolution may prescribe.
4. All additional shares approved to be issued shall be offered to the members in proportion to the number of shares already held by them and such offer shall be made by notice fixing the number of shares which each member is entitled to be allotted and restricting the time in which the offer if not accepted, shall be deemed as having been declined and after which time or on receipt of a declaration by the member to whom such a notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may allot or otherwise dispose same to such persons and under such conditions as they would deem fit.
5. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except as otherwise provided by these Articles or by law or by an order of a Court of a competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
6. Notwithstanding any provision of Article 5 above, but always subject to the provisions of section 112 of the Law, the Company may if it so desires and if it has been notified in writing thereof, recognise the existence of a trust on any share although it may not registered the same in the Register of Members of the Company. Such recognition by the Company is made known to the trustees by letter and is irrevocable as long as such trust remains in existence, even though trustees or any of them may be replaced.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

7. The Directors may, independently of any other provision of the Articles, but subject to Article 8 herein below, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason thereof, decline to register the transfer of any share to any person of whom they do not approve, whether or not it is a fully paid share, and may also decline to register the transfer of any share on which the Company has a legal lien.

8. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, the following transfers of shares to members of the Company or not and either by sale, exchange, gift, transmission by law or otherwise are freely permitted and the directors shall forthwith approve any such transfer and shall proceed to the registration of same in the Register of Members of the Company:

- (a) Transfer to father, mother, spouse, child, grandson or grand-daughter of the transferor (in these Articles called "members of the family").
- (b) If the member is one or more trustees, transfer to another trustee or trustees if any previous one or ones were replaced.
- (c) Transfer by a trustee or trustees to the beneficial owner/s provided that the existence of the trust has been recognised by the company in accordance with article 6 above.
- (d) Transfer by an individual member to a company controlled either together or separately by such member and/or by any members of his family and/or by a company controlled by them or any of them. For the purposes of this paragraph a company is deemed to be controlled if the controlling person, physical or legal, holds therein more than 50% of the votes.
- (e) Transfer by a company member to an individual or to another company holding in the transfer or company more than 25% of the votes.
- (f) Transfer by a company member to another company which is a subsidiary or holding of the transfer or company or to another company controlled by such subsidiary or holding company. For the purposes of this paragraph the words subsidiary and holding company have the usual meaning and the word "controlled company" means holding in such company more than 50% of the votes.
- (g) Transfer that is approved by a unanimous decision of the directors or by a special resolution of the company.

Provided that the above free transfer of shares will not be allowed if by such transfer there would result, directly or indirectly, the transformation of this Company to a non-exempt one, if it is already an exempt company or to a public company, except if the Directors would otherwise resolve unanimously, in which case such transfer would be freely allowed and without the exercise of the rights of option herein below provided.

9. No transfer of shares to any member of the Company or not, which is not prescribed by these Articles to be freely allowed may be effected as long as any member wishes to buy such share at its share value as herein below provided.
10. Every member who desires to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the "vendor") shall give to the Company notice in writing of such desire (hereinafter called the "notice of sale"). The notice of sale must state the amount of shares the vendor desires to transfer and the amount that he considers to be the fair value for each share. The notice of sale shall constitute the Company as the vendor's agent for the sale of the shares to any member/s of the Company (hereinafter called the "buying members"), at the price fixed as aforesaid or if any buying member so elects, at the fair value fixed by the company's auditor (hereinafter called the "auditor") as described under regulation 14 below. A notice of sale cannot be revoked except with the prior permission of the directors.

11. The Company shall within seven days from the service of the notice of sale as described above, notify in writing all its members of the number of shares offered for sale and of the fair value stated by the vendor. This notice must also include an invitation by the Company to all its members to state in writing, within twenty eight days from the day of service of such notice, whether they wish to buy any of the shares offered for sale and in case of an affirmative answer, the maximum number of shares they wish to buy.
12. Upon expiration of the aforesaid time limit of twenty eight days, the Company shall distribute the shares offered for sale to the members who have expressed their wish to buy them in accordance with the above provision and in case such members are more than one, shall distribute the said shares as far as possible to the proportion of the shares that such members already hold. No member shall be obliged to buy more shares than the number he had specified.
13. After the distribution of the shares by the Company as aforesaid, the Company shall have the obligation to notify this to the vendor. Upon such notification and upon payment of the fair price determined under regulation 10 or 14, the vendor shall be obliged to transfer the shares to the buyers.
14. In case that the buying members or any of them disagree with the fair value of any share as stated by the vendor, they can submit a request to the auditor of the company to certify in writing within 10 days from the request, the amount which in his opinion represents the fair value. Such amount shall be considered as the fair value of the shares. The auditor in exercising the above power shall be considered to be acting as an expert and not as arbitrator and consequently the provisions of the Arbitration Law Cap. 4 shall not apply. The auditor in calculating the reasonable price may use the services of another professional i.e. chartered valuer.
15. In case the vendor omits to transfer the shares, which he is obliged to transfer under the above provisions, the Company shall proceed to collect the consideration for the shares and shall register in the Register of Members the names of the buying members as beneficial holders. The Company as trustee shall hold the consideration received as above for the vendor and a receipt by the Company of the consideration shall constitute a discharge of the buying members of the obligation to pay same. And upon the entry of their names on the Register of Members under this regulation no dispute can be entertained as to the validity of this procedure by any person.
16. In case the sale of all the shares offered for sale is not achieved in the manner above provided, the vendor shall be at liberty at any time within the period of three months after the expiration of the said period of 28 days and subject to regulation 7 above, to sell and transfer any of the un-disposed shares to any person and at any price.
17. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles, no share shall be given by a member as a pledge or as security for a loan, debt or obligation without the sanction of the directors, and the directors shall decline to register or recognize any such pledge or security given in contravention of this Article, which pledge or security shall not be valid towards the Company, save as otherwise provided by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

18. Each member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.
19. All notices and other communication relating to a General Meeting and which each member is entitled to receive shall also be given to the auditors of the Company.
20. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the Meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, any member/s present in person or by proxy holding in total at least 51% of the issued share capital, shall constitute a quorum.
21. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:-
 - (a) by the chairman, or
 - (b) by at least one member, present in person or by proxy.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

22. The chairman of a General Meeting has no second or casting vote.
23. Subject to the provisions of the Law, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings - or being corporations by their duly authorized representatives - shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

DIRECTORS

 - (a) The number of the directors shall be from one to seven and may be increased or reduced by an ordinary resolution of the Company.
 - (b) The number of the first directors within the aforesaid limits and their names shall be determined by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Company.
 - (c) The aforesaid first directors shall hold their post until the first Annual General Meeting.
25. It shall not be necessary for a director to be registered holder of shares in the Company in order to be a director, and in such case he shall be entitled to receive notice and attend all the General Meetings of the Company.

26. The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company, to borrow or raise money, to mortgage or charge the undertaking of the Company, its property and uncalled capital, as well as to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities as security for any debt, loss or obligation of the Company or of any other third party legal or physical including also themselves.
27. The directors may meet together for the dispatch of their business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they deem fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. A director may and the secretary, on the requisition of a director, shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the directors.
28. Each director may vote as director in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is personally interested or in respect of any other matter referred to in section 191 of the Companies Law and if he does so vote his vote shall be counted and shall, also, be counted in the quorum present at the meeting when considering such contract or arrangement.
29. Each director may at any time and from time to time by a Power of Attorney duly made and attested appoint any person, director or not to be an alternate director in his place and for any period of time he may fix, and such alternate director shall during such period be entitled to attend and vote in any meeting of the directors and he shall generally have and exercise all rights powers and duties of the director appointing him, provided always that the appointer director may at any time revoke such appointment and in case of death or disability of the appointer director or in case in which the latter ceases for any reason to be a director the appointment shall be terminated ipso facto and shall be of no effect. If an alternate director is already a director of the Company, he shall have a separate vote, as alternate director and shall be counted separately for the purposes of constituting a quorum.
30. Any person acting as alternate director shall be deemed to be an officer of the Company and he shall be personally liable to it for his acts and omissions and his remuneration shall be paid out of the remuneration of the director appointing him and shall consist of such part of such remuneration as it may be agreed between the appointer director and his alternate.
31. A resolution in writing, signed, or approved by letter, cable, radiogram or telex by all the directors, or the alternate directors, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if the same had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held.
32. The directors may grant retirement pensions or annuities or other gratuities or allowances, including allowances on death, to any person or to the widow of or dependents of any person in respect of services rendered by him to the Company whether as director or director in any executive office or in any other office or employment under the Company or indirectly as an officer or employee of any subsidiary company of the Company notwithstanding that he may be or may have been a director of the Company and the Company may make payments towards insurances or trusts for such purposes in respect of such pensions, annuities and allowances in the terms of engagement of any such person, without being precluded from granting such retirement pensions or annuities or other gratuities or allowances including allowances of death not as a part and independently of the terms of any engagement but upon the retirement, resignation or death of any such person as the board of directors may decide.

PLACE OF CONVENTION OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

33. Notwithstanding any provision contained in the Articles applicable to the Company, the meetings of the directors, as well as the General Meetings of the Company (ordinary or extraordinary) may be convened and held either in Cyprus or abroad, in any city or at any place as the majority of the directors or the members, as the case may be, may require in writing.

COMPANY'S SEAL

34. The seal of the Company shall only be used by the authority of the directors and every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by one director or alternate director, or by the secretary. The Company may have an official seal, in addition to the aforesaid common seal, which shall be as provided by s.36 (1) of the Law and for use as therein provided.

NOTICES

35. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address or (if he has no registered address within Cyprus) to the address, if any, within or out of Cyprus, supplied by him to the Company, for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected if contained in an envelope, duly addressed and duly stamped and posted by double registered letter and shall be deemed to have been received in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of 72 hours after posting and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
