2. The managing directors and supervisory directors shall be appointed by — the general meeting and may at any time be suspended or removed — from office by the meeting. The board of managing directors is —

- authorized to grant personal titles such as president, vice-president, treasurer and secretary to the managing directors.
3. Without prejudice to its responsibility the board of managing directors has the power to appoint attorneys in fact, to determine their powers and the manner in which they are to represent the corporation and sign on its behalf.
 4. Every managing director has the power to authorize a co-director to represent him in his capacity of a managing director at meetings of the managing directors, with due observance of the terms set forth in the power of attorney.
 5. Each managing director may in his capacity of managing director appoint by telegram, telex or other writing a natural or legal person as his proxy to represent him in his said capacity, such proxy to be specific and not general. When issuing such a proxy the managing director may not exceed the authority vested in him pursuant to these articles of association.
 6. When one (1) or more managing directors are absent or otherwise precluded from acting, the remaining managing director(s) shall be fully responsible for the management of the corporation. When all the managing directors are absent or otherwise precluded from acting, the corporation shall be managed temporarily by a person appointed for that purpose by the general meeting. The person so appointed shall call a general meeting as soon as possible in order to provide for a definitive management. As long as this has not been accomplished the acts of management of the person so appointed shall be limited to those which cannot be delayed.
 7. The board meets as often as a managing director so desires. The convening notice is issued by the managing director who initiated the meeting, which notice shall state the items to be discussed, with due observance of a notice period of at least eight (8) days. At the meetings each managing director is entitled to cast one (1) vote. The managing directors can have themselves represented by another managing director by written proxy. The board takes decisions by an absolute majority of the votes cast. In the event of a tie, the general meeting decides.
 8. The board may establish regulations in which matters relating to it internally are stated. In that context, the board can determine, amongst other things, how the activities are divided amongst themselves. The general meeting may determine that the regulations are subject to its approval.
 9. The board may also pass resolutions outside a meeting, provided that all board members entitled to vote have agreed to this manner of decision-making. Approval with the method of decision-making can be done electronically. In case of resolutions outside a meeting, the votes are cast in writing or electronically. The requirement that the votes will be

- cast in writing is also met if the resolution, stating the manner in which — each of the directors has voted, is recorded in writing or electronically. —
10. Board meetings may be held by a meeting of the managing directors in — person, or by telephone, video conference or other means of — communication, whereby all participating managing directors are able to — communicate with each other simultaneously. Participation at such — meetings will be considered equal to being present at a meeting. —
