Article 4. Amendments and supplements

This Deed can solely be amended or supplemented by means of a document signed by all Parties which document will be attached to this Deed.

Article 5. Partial invalidity, continuing obligations

- 5.1. If one or more articles of this Deed were to be null and void or non-binding in another way, this does not affect the validity of the other articles of this Deed, unless the non-binding provisions regards the essence of the Deed and the other provisions not being affected raise such objections with one of the Parties that reasonableness and fairness order the other articles to be non-binding as well.

- 5.2. In both cases Parties will then in mutual consultation and in the spirit of this Deed amend this Deed to the extent necessary, in the sense that the non-binding articles will be replaced by articles that will differ as little as possible from the related non-binding articles.
- 5.3. Obligations that by their nature are destined to also continue after termination continue to exist after termination of this Deed.

Article 6. Remedies

- 6.1. Failure to execute, or a delay in the execution, of a right or remedy arising from the underlying agreement or the law, will not impair the execution of this right or remedy or another right and/or remedy in any way whatsoever.
- 6.2. Partial execution of a right, or remedy arising from this Deed or the law, as yet does not obstruct fully executing this right or remedy, or of the execution of another right or remedy.
- 6.3. The rights and remedies arising from the underlying agreement are complementary and do not exclude any rights or remedies arising from the law.

Article 7. Applicable law, regulation on disputes

- 7.1. This Deed shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Curaçao.
- 7.2. A dispute arises if one of the Parties informs the other party of such in writing.
- 7.3. All disputes arising out of or in connection with this Deed shall, if no amicable settlement can be reached between the Parties, be exclusively referred to the competent court in Willemstad, Curaçao.

Article 8. Miscellaneous

- 8.1. Parties renounce any right they may have to demand the dissolution or cancellation.
- 8.2. This Deed may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
- 8.3. The preamble is an integral part of this Deed.

Thus agreed and signed in two copies.
