1. Introduction

We recognize the importance of promoting responsible gaming practices to ensure a safe and enjoyable gaming experience for all our players. This policy outlines our commitment to responsible gaming, emphasizing the balance between entertainment value and the prevention of excessive gambling behavior.

2. Entertainment as a Driver for Long-Term Player Value

We believe that gaming should be viewed primarily as a form of entertainment, offering excitement, social interaction, and relaxation to our players. Our platform is designed to provide a diverse range of gaming options, including casino games and sports betting, to cater to different preferences and interests.

The Company has appointed a designated Responsible Gaming person, who is responsible for implementing and enforcing the Policy. Furthermore, this designated person shall be the point of reference regarding this Policy and its related requirements.

Understanding the Entertainment Value

For our players, visiting us should be akin to enjoying other forms of entertainment, such as going to the movies, dining out, or attending sporting events. They should allocate a discretionary portion of their income specifically for gaming activities, viewing it as a source of excitement, social interaction, and relaxation.

Frequency and Moderation

These players engage with our platform in a moderate and responsible manner, balancing their gaming activities with other aspects of their lives. They may visit our website periodically, such as on weekends or during leisure time, to unwind and enjoy their favorite games or sports betting options.

Financial Responsibility

Our key consumer demographic and targeted users should understand the importance of financial responsibility and budgeting. They set limits on their gaming expenditures based on their disposable income and overall budget, ensuring that their gaming activities remain within manageable and sustainable levels.

Replacement of Other Entertainment Forms

Additionally, a key consumer of our platform is one who uses our products and services much like other forms of entertainment, such as streaming services like Netflix or computer gaming,. They do so in a responsible manner, spending fixed and affordable amounts regularly on our platform as part of their entertainment choices.

This should be reflected in our marketing and consumer targeting.
