PRUNUS AVIUM LTD

PRELIMINARY

1. The regulations contained in Part I of the First Schedule to the Companies Act, 1995 (such Schedule being hereinafter called the 'First Schedule') shall apply to the Company save in so far as they are excluded or varied hereby.

2. The company is established as a Private Exempt Company and accordingly:

(a) that the number of persons holding debentures of the company is not more than fifty;

(b) that no body corporate is a director of the company, and neither the company nor any of the directors is party to an arrangement whereby the policy of the company is capable of being determined by persons other than the directors, members or debenture holders thereof.

The regulations contained in Part II of the First Schedule relating to the management of a Private Exempt Company shall apply to the Company.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

3. Any member wishing to transfer his/her shares or any of them (hereinafter referred to as the 'Transferring Member') must obtain approval from all the shareholders in accordance with these articles. If such approval has been granted, the Transferring Member must first offer them for sale to the other members; the Transferring Member shall inform the Board of Directors by a notice in writing (hereinafter referred to as 'the transfer notice') specifying the number of shares to be transferred, the name of the proposed transferee(s) and the Transferring Member's estimated valuation of each share.

4. The receipt by the Board of Directors of a transfer notice shall, unless and until revoked in writing by the Transferring Member wishing to transfer his/her shares, constitute an authority to them to offer for sale the shares specified therein, to existing members of the Company as follows:-

(a) The fair value for any shares to be transferred is that proportion of the value of the entire share capital of the Company that the Transferring Member's shares bear to the entire issued share capital of the Company (with no discount for the size of the Transferring Member's shareholding).

(b) For the purpose of the above calculation, the value of the entire issue share capital of the Company shall be taken to be either:

i. The amount determined by agreement of all members in a general meeting; or

- ii. If the members fail to reach an agreement in accordance with article 4 (b) (i) above, the amount the Independent Accountants consider to be the fair value of the entire share capital of the Company.
 - (c) For the purpose of article 4 (b) (ii), in determining the fair value of the entire share capital of the Company, the Independent Accountants shall rely on the following assumptions:
 - i. The sale is between a willing seller and a willing buyer;
 - ii. The shares are sold free of all restrictions, liens, charges and other encumbrances; and
 - iii. The sale is taking place on the date the Independent Accountants were requested to determine the fair value.
 - (d) The Independent Accountants shall act as experts and not as arbitrators and their written determination shall be final and binding on the members (in the absence of manifest error or fraud).
 - (e) Each member shall bear its own cost in relation to reference to the Independent Accountants. The Independent Accountants' fees and costs properly incurred by them in arriving at their valuation shall be borne by the Company
 - (f) "Independent Accountant" means a firm of independent chartered accountants agreed between the members and if such firm is not agreed upon within 7 days from the member's request to appoint Independent Accountants, such firm as is appointed by the President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants on application by any member
5. When a fair value of the shares has been determined in the manner prescribed in Article 4, the Directors shall by notice in writing inform the Transferring Member and shall cause a notice to be sent to every other member of the Company stating the number and the fair value of the shares for sale and inviting them to state, in writing within fourteen (14) days, what number of shares, if any, they are willing to purchase.
6. On the expiration of the said fourteen (14) days, the Board of Directors shall allocate the said shares to members willing to purchase. If the requests for shares exceed the number for sale, the Directors shall apportion the shares in accordance with the purchasing members' existing shareholdings.
7. The member wishing to transfer his shares shall complete and execute the transfers of the said shares in accordance with the allocation by the Directors and shall surrender to the Company his share certificate.
8. If the Board of Directors shall be unable, within two months of receipt of the transfer notice referred to in Article 3, to find the purchaser for all or any of the shares amongst the holders of the existing shareholding, the transferring member shall be entitled to sell to the person named in the transfer notice at a price which is not less than the fair valuation placed on the shares in the manner prescribed in Article 4.
- 8A. No restriction on the transfer or transmission of shares shall apply where such transfers or transmissions take place whether 'inter vivos' or 'causa mortis' to an ascendant, linear descendant, wife or husband, widow or widower of the Transferring or deceased Member or to any person who holds or held more than seventy five percent (75%) of the direct beneficial ownership and voting rights and effective control in such Member (where such Member is or was a partnership, company or any other legal person) or to the ascendant, linear descendant, wife or husband, widow or widower of such person holding more than seventy five percent (75%) of the direct beneficial ownership and voting rights and effective control in such Member, or to any partnership, company or legal person in which more than seventy five per cent (75%) of the ultimate beneficial ownership and voting rights and effective control is or was held by the said Member.

Further, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, no restriction on the transfer of shares shall apply when such transfer is effected to a partnership, company or any other legal person in which any two members hold jointly more than seventy five percent (75%) of the direct beneficial ownership and voting rights and effective control.

For the purpose of this Article 8A, the term 'deceased Member', wherever used herein, shall include a Member which is a partnership, a company or a legal person which has ceased to exist for any reason whatsoever and 'transmission causa mortis' or its derivative, wherever used in this Article 8A, shall be construed accordingly.

Any person becoming so entitled to a share or shares in the company following such a transfer 'inter vivos' or 'causa mortis' may elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or shares or to have some person nominated by him so registered and the Directors shall, in either case, have no right to decline or suspend such registration.

10. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, every Member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder; poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

11. A resolution in writing signed by all the Member(s) for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and may consist of two or more documents (including documents sent via email) in like form each signed by one or more of the Members (or their duly authorised representatives).

11A. The Members of the Company shall be notified by letter in writing at least fifteen (15) days in advance of any general meeting as convened or as postponed. Such letter shall also contain the agenda of the meeting.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

12. The general powers conferred upon the Directors by this Article shall not be deemed to be abridged or restricted by any specific power conferred upon the Directors by any other Article.

13. A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company duly convened and held, and may consist of two or more documents in like form each signed by one or more of the Directors (or their duly authorised representatives) at a different time and place.

The person so appointed shall have a vote as a Director for each Director by whom he is so appointed. Any such appointment must be in writing and must be deposited at the registered office of the Company. A Director, who is also an alternate Director, shall be entitled in addition to his own vote, to a separate vote on behalf of the Director he is representing. If during the adjourned meeting, the directors fail to agree on who shall act as chairman of their meeting, the matter shall be referred to the general meeting, who shall decide by means of an Ordinary Resolution.

21. No business may be transacted at a meeting of the Board of Directors unless a quorum of Directors is present.
