Dear Sir/Madam,

Temple Holdings N.V., holder of License Number OGL/2024/1581/0803, hereby formally notifies the Curaçao Gaming Authority of its decision to voluntarily surrender its gaming licence.

In accordance with applicable regulatory expectations, we confirm that all necessary measures have been taken to ensure an orderly cessation of operations under the above-mentioned licence, with regard to player protection and the proper discharge of all outstanding obligations.

In this respect, we confirm that:

- There are no outstanding player complaints, disputes, or general matters associated with the licence.
- All registered players have been duly notified of the discontinuation of services under this licence and the proposed migration.
- Players were provided with a clear opportunity to opt out of the migration process.
- All player accounts and any remaining balances have been transferred in full to a separate entity operating under a valid licence issued by the Anjouan Gaming.
- No player funds remain held under the Curaçao licence.
- All domains have been removed from the Domain list

Temple Holdings N.V. confirms that it has satisfied all applicable legal and regulatory requirements in connection with the surrender of this licence and that no further gaming activity is being conducted under this authorisation.

We kindly request written confirmation of receipt of this notification and the effective date of the licence surrender. Should the Authority require any additional information or documentation, we remain at your disposal.
