receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 2 notify the co- _____ shareholders of the offer made by the offeror and shall notify each _____ shareholder of the share price within fourteen (14) days of the share _____ price being established by the experts or agreed by the shareholders. _____

6. Notwithstanding what is provided in paragraph 8, the board of managing directors, if notified by each co-shareholder within the period stipulated in that paragraph, shall without delay notify the offeror that the offer has not or not fully been taken up.
7. Shareholders who intend to purchase the shares offered for sale shall notify the board of managing directors of that intention within thirty days of receiving notification of the share price in accordance with paragraph 5.
8. The board of managing directors shall allot the offered shares to the applicants and shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of the allocation within fourteen (14) days of expiry of the period specified in paragraph 7.
To the extent that the shares have not been allotted the board of managing directors shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of that fact within the period referred to in this paragraph.
9. The shares shall be allotted by the board of managing directors as follows:
 - a. pro rata to the nominal value of the shares held by the applicants;
 - b. shares may be allotted to the company only if no application for such shares has been made by the other co-shareholders;
 - c. to the extent that shares cannot be allotted on the basis of proportionality the allotment shall be determined by the drawing of lots;on the understanding in all matters that no-one may be allotted a greater number of shares than that applicant has applied for.
10. The offeror may withdraw his offer at any time provided he does so within one (1) month after he has been notified of the shareholders to whom and at what price he may sell the shares offered.
11. The shares sold shall, against immediate payment of the purchase price, be transferred within eight (8) days of expiration of the period during which the offer may be withdrawn.
12. The offeror may freely transfer the offered shares within a period of three (3) months following the notification referred to in paragraph 8 has been given that the offer has not or not fully been taken up.
13. The experts referred to in paragraph 3 shall determine fairly who shall bear the costs of valuation. They may determine that the company shall bear the costs wholly or in part.
14. The provisions of this article shall, as far as possible, apply mutatis mutandis to the disposal of shares purchased or otherwise acquired by the company.
15. The provisions of this article shall not apply to transfers to which every shareholder has notified the company that observance of the provisions may be waived.
Transfers of shares may then take place only within the succeeding period of three (3) months.

Special duty of notification

Article 13

1. In the event of the death, grant of suspension of payment, bankruptcy, — guardianship or dissolution of the matrimonial property regime of a — shareholder otherwise than upon death, as well as upon the dissolution — of a legal person being a shareholder and where a legal person being a — shareholder ceases to exist in consequence of a legal merger, the — shares shall be offered to the company in accordance with the following — paragraphs. —
2. If an obligation exists to offer shares for sale the provisions of article 12 — shall apply mutatis mutandis except that the offeror: —
 - a. shall not have the right to withdraw the offer in accordance with — paragraph 10 of that article; —
 - b. may retain the shares where the offer has not or not fully been taken — up. —
3. The person under an obligation to offer for sale one or more shares shall — within thirty (30) days of the obligation arising - in the case referred to in — paragraph 6 under b, upon expiration of the period of time referred to in — that paragraph - notify the board of managing directors of the offer to — sell. In the absence of notification the board of managing directors shall — inform the person under the obligation to offer shares for sale of such — failure to notify and bring the terms of the preceding sentence to his — attention. —

If that person still fails to notify the company within eight days the — company shall offer the shares for sale on behalf of the shareholder — concerned and if all of the shares offered for sale are taken up shall — transfer the shares to the purchaser(s) upon payment of the purchase — price. The company possesses an irrevocable power so to act. —
4. The company shall, in the event of a transfer of shares pursuant to the — preceding paragraph, pay to the person or persons on whose behalf the — offer was made the net balance of the purchase price after deduction of — any costs attaching to the transaction. —
5. In consequence of the obligation to offer shares for sale pursuant to the — provisions of this article and while that obligation exists, the rights — attaching to a share, in so far as the shareholder is entitled to such — rights, cannot be exercised while and for as long as the shareholder fails — to fulfil that obligation. —
6. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply: —
 - a. where all the remaining shareholders have given notice of waiver of — the obligation to satisfy those provisions; —
 - b. where, in the event of the dissolution of the matrimonial property — regime otherwise than upon the death of a shareholder, the shares — are transferred within a period of twenty-four (24) months of the — dissolution to the spouse to whose share of the matrimonial property — the shares attach. —

Each share is entitled to an equal share in the profit to be distributed. _____
2. The company may distribute the profits available for distribution to the _____ shareholders and other persons with a claim to such profits only to the extent that the amount of the equity of the company after such _____ distribution is at least equal to the total nominal amount of the issued shares.

3. Any distribution of profits shall be made after approval of the annual accounts from which it appears that any such distribution is permitted.
4. Shares held by the company in its own capital shall not be included in computing the distribution of profits, unless such shares are subject to a right of user or registered depository receipts for such shares have been issued.
5. The board of managing directors shall not make an interim distribution of profits unless the provision of paragraph 2 has been met.

Dividends

Article 20

The dividend paid on shares may be claimed by the shareholder one (1) month after approval of the annual accounts unless the general meeting determines another period.

The General Meeting of Shareholders

Article 21

1. General meetings of shareholders shall be held in Curaçao.
2. A general meeting shall be held annually within a period not exceeding nine months from the end of the company's financial year.
The following shall be treated during that meeting:
 - a. the annual accounts;
 - b. proposals placed on the agenda by the board of managing directors or by one or more shareholders. Proposals by shareholders or other persons with the right to vote on shares must be submitted in writing, with an explanatory note, to the board of managing directors before the notice convening the meeting is sent;
 - c. the designation of a person meant in paragraph 6 of article 14 of these articles of incorporation;
 - d. any other business, on the understanding that no legally valid resolutions may be passed in respect of business not specified in the notice convening the meeting as being on the agenda, or in any supplementary convening notice sent within the period set for giving notice convening the meeting, unless the resolution is passed unanimously at a meeting attended by every shareholder and any other person who has a right to vote on shares, or at which such persons are represented.
3. In respect of a decision establishing a period of extension within the meaning of article 17 paragraph 2 above the annual accounts and annual report shall be treated in conformity with that decision.
4. General meetings shall be held as frequently as the board of managing directors convenes them. The board of managing directors shall be obliged to convene a general meeting when requested in writing by persons entitled to vote and who are authorized to cast solely or together at least ten percent (10%) of the votes with regard to certain subjects that fall under that voting right, provided they have a reasonable interest.

If the board does not comply with such a request within fourteen (14)—— days after the day on which the request has reached the company or the body concerned, the petitioners themselves may convene the meeting.—

Convening the General Meeting

Article 22

1. Each person entitled to attend a meeting is entitled to attend, either in—— person or by written proxy, the general meeting and to address the—— meeting.——
Persons entitled to attend a meeting are all the shareholders and—— persons who are entitled to vote.——
Shares for which the law stipulates that no votes may be cast, shall not—— be taken into account in determining to what extent a shareholder is—— present or represented.——
2. Persons entitled to attend a meeting shall be summoned to a general—— meeting by written notice specifying a period of summons of at least five—— (5) days, excluding the day of despatch and the day of receipt. The—— convening notice shall be sent to the addresses of the persons entitled—— to attend a meeting. In case one (1) or more addresses are not known,—— the convocation must be published in the official gazette of Curaçao.——
3. The convening notice shall state the place of the meeting and the—— subjects to be discussed. Subjects that are proposed by a person—— entitled to vote in due time will be placed on the agenda, unless this shall not be in the interests of a good order in the meeting. In any case, the—— nominated subjects will be stated in the notice.——
4. If a proposal is made to amend the articles of association, a copy of that—— proposal, in which the proposed amendments are laid down literally, is—— sent or deposited at the offices of the company for the shareholders to—— inspect.——

3. If a notarial report is not executed, the minutes of the business—— transacted at the general meeting shall be adopted in the meeting which—— be signed by the chairman and by the person who took the minutes—— during that meeting by witness thereof.——
4. The board of managing directors shall keep the minutes of the general—— meeting. The minutes are deposited at the office of the company for—— inspection by the shareholders, at whose request a copy or an excerpt of such minutes shall be issued at not more than the cost price.

Passing of resolutions

Article 24

1. Each share shall entitle the shareholder to cast one (1) vote.
2. The resolutions of the general meeting shall be passed by an absolute majority of the votes cast, except in those cases where a greater majority is required by these articles or by the law.
3. Votes shall be cast verbally in respect of business other than persons; votes cast in respect of persons shall be in writing and unsigned. If a ballot in respect of persons fails to secure an absolute majority a second ballot shall be held between the two (2) persons for whom the most votes were cast at the first ballot.
4. If a vote in respect of business other than persons results in a tie the board of managing directors shall have the decisive vote. If a vote in respect of persons results in a tie the proposal shall be determined by the drawing of lots.
5. Blank votes shall be deemed not to have been cast.
6. No vote may be cast at the general meeting for a share held by the company.

Shares which by virtue of the above possess no voting rights shall not be taken into account in determining to what extent capital is represented at the general meeting.

Passing of resolutions other than in a general meeting

Article 25

Any resolution that may be passed in a shareholders meeting may also be taken outside such meeting, provided that all persons entitled to attend the meeting have agreed to this manner of decision-making in writing, whether or not by any means of telecommunication.

Special resolutions

Article 25

1. A resolution to amend these articles of association, to dissolve the company, to convert the company or to merger or split-off the company, may only be passed in a general meeting at which not less than a minimum of two thirds (2/3) of the nominal capital is represented and by a majority of not less than three quarters (3/4) of the votes cast. A resolution to merge may only be taken unanimously at a general meeting of shareholders at which two thirds (2/3) of the nominal capital is represented.
2. If the capital referred to in the preceding paragraph is not represented another meeting shall be convened and shall be held within one month but not earlier than fifteen (15) days of the first meeting at which and without reference to the capital there represented the resolution to amend the articles of incorporation or to dissolve the company may be passed by a majority of not less than three quarters (3/4) of the votes cast, while the resolutions to merge shall be taken with unanimous vote.

The notice convening this meeting shall state that it is a second meeting.

Convening notices and other notices

Article 27

1. Convening notices and other notices sent by or to the company shall be in writing sent by mail, whether or not recorded, telefax or by e-mail. Messages intended for shareholders shall be sent to the address known to the company.
2. Notices that by virtue of law or the articles of association must be sent to the general meeting may be effected by inclusion in the notice convening the general meeting.

Dissolution

Article 28

1. Upon dissolution of the company, the liquidation will be effected by the board, unless the general meeting decides otherwise.
2. These articles shall, as far as possible, remain in force during the liquidation. The provisions relating to managing directors shall apply to the liquidators.
3. Any credit balance in the liquidation account remaining after satisfaction of creditors shall be distributed to the shareholders pro rata to the shares held by each shareholder.
4. Upon completion of the liquidation process the company shall cease to exist at the moment the liquidator confirms in writing (in accordance with article 2:31 paragraph 6 of the Civil Code of Curaçao) that no assets nor liabilities are known to him.

Final Provision

Article 29

Any powers not conferred on other persons shall, within the limits set by law and these articles, be vested in the general meeting.
