Dear CGA,

As requested, please find below the details regarding my income in cryptocurrency from HawX LLC.

The initial funding of the business is sourced from my private savings, derived from current employment with HawX LLC and prior professional engagements. These funds are intended to support the business until it becomes self-sustaining.

Please find the following documents attached for your review:

1. A statement detailing the outgoing funds, as requested;
2. Cryptocurrency wallet information, income records, and account details used to settle the CGA invoices;
3. The most recent bank reference;
4. A copy of the contract with HawX LLC, which is the main source of funds allocated to the business.

Should you require any additional information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.
 Kind regards,

Pavels Kozlovs

Statement

I, Pavels Kozlovs (passport No. LV7386139), hereby declare that during my extensive professional experience in the gambling industry — as outlined in my CV — I was able to generate sufficient savings to establish new business ventures. These ventures, which include an online casino and a digital platform, are intended to become my primary sources of income. I have chosen to invest my savings into these projects and to dedicate my full time and effort to their development. I firmly believe that my network of professional relationships and contacts will help me achieve success in a relatively short period.

In relation to inquiries concerning my associations with certain individuals, specifically Ms. Svetlana Ivanova and Mr. Smiltins Gvido, I wish to clarify the following:

Ms. Svetlana Ivanova is my partner and girlfriend, with whom I cohabit. Naturally, as in any typical relationship, we conduct financial transactions between ourselves.

Mr. Smiltins Gvido is a close friend and former colleague with whom I have collaborated on several projects. We maintain a strong and mutually supportive relationship, which at times includes providing each other with financial assistance.

I do believe that this explanations provided are self explanatory.

Sincelrey yours,

Pavels Kozlovs

5.4. Information shall not be considered confidential and the Contractor will not be obliged in relation to such information, if it meets at least one of these conditions:

- it was known to the Contractor before signing of the Contract;
- it was obtained legally from the third party beyond relation to this Contract;
- it was publicly disclosed by the Customer himself;
- it was disclosed under the substantiated request in writing of the state body, authorities of which concerning receipt of such information are defined by valid legislation of Isle of Man;
- is permitted to be disclosed under the written consent of the Customer.

In each of the mentioned cases the Contractor shall give to the Customer explanations in writing on every case of disclosure or leakage of information with a documentary proof of legitimacy of his actions within 10 calendar days from the date of receipt of written request from the Customer.

5.5. Relations of the Parties under this Contract concerning observance of confidentiality are regulated by the Confidentiality Agreement, which the Parties sign simultaneously with signing of this Contract. The Contractor with the purpose of protection of confidential and commercial information of the Customer, without consent of the Customer, undertakes not to have direct or indirect (through the third parties) contacts with any clients of the Customer (including potential clients – legal entities or private entrepreneurs, who are engaged in activity similar to activity of the Customer's clients), if such contacts damage or may damage financial or other interests of the Customer, lessen profits expected by him.

5.6. The Contractor has no right to enter into commercial relations with the Customer's contractors without a prior consent of the Customer within the validity period of the Contract and 1 (one) year after its expiry.

5.7 PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. Personal Data, defined as any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, shall be considered Confidential Information and afforded all of the protections set forth in these terms and conditions. In addition to and without limiting the terms generally applicable to Confidential Information, the parties agree that each shall process, apply, view and use Personal Data only to the extent necessary to perform under this Agreement. Neither party shall transfer or otherwise allow the use of

P.L.

Personal Data of the other party or its customer and both parties shall comply with applicable laws and best practices relating to data privacy and data security. The Contractor has to return any data he received during the performance of the work under the agreement upon the expiration and/or termination of the Agreement as well as has no right to make any copy or duplicate or use any of received and or exchanged information. The Contractor has to follow with the policies adopted by the Customer in relation to the Personal Data Protection and confirms that he is aware of such policy.

6. FORCE MAJEURE

6.1. The Parties shall not be held liable for failure to fulfill and/or improper fulfillment of obligations under this Contract at occurrence of force majeure circumstances, such as: adoption by state authorities of regulatory acts, which considerably prevent from fulfillment of the Contract, earthquakes, floods, fires, typhoons, hurricanes, military actions, mass diseases (epidemics, epizootics), limitation of transportations, embargo on trade operations with certain countries as result of application of international sanctions and also at occurrence of other similar circumstances, which do not depend on the Parties' will (hereinafter referred to as "Force Majeure Events").

6.2. The Party, which was affected by force majeure circumstances, shall notify the other Party about this, within five days from the day of occurrence of such circumstances.

6.3. In case of occurrence of force majeure circumstances, the time period for fulfillment of obligations by the Parties under this Contract shall be prolonged in proportion to time period, within which these force majeure circumstances and/or their consequences persist.

6.4. The Party, which refers to effects of force majeure circumstances, shall be obliged to submit a document for confirmation of such effect issued by a competent state authority or the relevant chamber of commerce and industry or its branch.

6.5. If force majeure circumstances last for more than six months, each of the Parties has the right to terminate this Contract, having returned all property or monetary funds to the other Party, which were received in advance for fulfillment of this Contract before expiry of its validity. At that none of the Parties has the right to demand from the other Party indemnification of possible losses.
