Please note that as per decision of the management, significant portion of the company's revenue is currently spent towards salaries and operating expenses. These salaries are predominantly paid to Ms. Radhika and related family members, which has the effect of reduced net profit I1 GA. In addition, several personal expenses are being processed through the company's accounts as an agreed perks to Ms. Radhika and her relatives.

After adjusting for these factors, the effective net worth attributable to Ms. Radhika is estimated at approximately USD 945,000.

Furthermore, it should be noted that the financial statements have been prepared from the inception of the company up to August, a period that includes over three months of minimal or no turnover. When this non-operational period is normalized, the annualized turnover of the company is estimated to be approximately USD 1 million.

Thank you and Kind Regards:
