(in USD)

b. Receivables

Receivables are valued at face value less a provision for possible uncollectable accounts.

c . Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are stated at face value.

d. Shareholders' equity

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

e. Current liabilities

On initial recognition current liabilities are recognised at fair value. After initial recognition current liabilities are recognised at the amortised cost price, being the amount received taking into account premiums or discounts and minus transaction costs. This is usually the nominal value.

f. Recognition of Income and Expenses Revenue

Revenues from the services rendered are recognised in proportion to the services delivered, based on the services rendered up to the balance sheet date in proportion to the total of services to be rendered

Other operating income results are recognized which are not directly linked to the services as part of the normal, non-incidental operations.

g. Cost of sales

Cost of sales represents the direct and indirect expenses attributable to revenue, purchase expenses related to the goods sold, employee cost, depreciation charges for buildings and equipment, and other operating expenses that are attributable to cost of sales.

Goodwill amortisation is also recognised within cost of sales.

h . Operating expenses

Operating expenses consist primarily of staff costs and corporate professional expenses, both of which are recognised on an accruals basis.
