Summary

I have been working in the management services (trust) business for almost 20 years now of which 14 years as managing director of the Curacao office and various years as director of other Caribbean, North American and South American licensed service companies. As of 2015 I became co-owner of the Corpag Group, which I sold in 2024. The Corpag group is a mid-sized international trust company with about 140 employees. In 2021, I established Starkeast Services BV, a small boutique Corporate Service Provider, with a primary focus on delivering personalized client services.
