2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

2.1 Ownership

2.1.1 All rights and interest in and to the Software, any copies thereof, and all Documentation, code and logic, which describes and/or comprises the Software, remain the sole property or rest at sole disposal of the Grantor.

2.2 Rights Granted

2.2.1 The Grantor hereby grants to the Company a non-exclusive, non-assignable and subject to Section 8.2, a non-transferable right of use for the Software to be used by the Company solely for the purpose of the Business Activity and in accordance with the provisions set out herein for the duration of this Agreement as specified in Clause 3.1.

2.3 Restriction of Right of Use

- 2.3.1 Company shall not copy, modify, assign, distribute, transfer, reverse engineer or reverse compile the Software, nor shall Company prepare derivative works incorporating the Software without the prior written consent of the Grantor. Neither Company nor its personnel may use the Software or the Documentation to design software with similar or competitive functionality.
- 2.3.2 The Grantor grants no rights to the Company other than those expressly specified in this Agreement. In particular, no rights of ownership or any rights other than the right to use the Software as specified in this Agreement are granted. Without prejudice to the generality of the preceding sentences the Company shall not:
- 2.3.2.1 distribute, redistribute, sell, lease, assign, transfer, trade, rent, publish or grant a right of use on the Software, whether in full or in part, to any Third Party; or
 - 2.3.2.2 download or make any copies of the Software; or
 - 2.3.2.3 disassemble, reverse engineer, decompile or attempt or allow any other person to disassemble, reverse engineer or decompile any copies of the Software, whether in part or in full; or
 - 2.3.2.4 develop, produce, make, distribute, grant a right of use, exploit or allow any other person to develop, produce, make, distribute, grant a right of use, exploit any Software's derivative work; or
 - 2.3.2.5 view any of the coding of the Software or any software provided by the Grantor to the Company;
 - 2.3.2.6 monitor or replicate, in any way whatsoever (in form or function) the Software, or any part thereof, or any software provided by the Grantor to the Company;
 - 2.3.2.7 alter or modify any part of the Software; or
 - 2.3.2.8 use the Software for any purpose except in the course of its Business Activity.
- 2.3.3. Where approval of the Regulator is required to offer the Casino Style Games to the Customer, the Company is responsible for obtaining any approval, license, authority, consent or any other permission as required by an Applicable Law for the Casino Style Games to be considered lawful ("Regulatory Approval"). Upon receiving a request from the Company, the Grantor shall provide such information and assistance as may be reasonably required by the Regulator in connection with the Company obtaining any Regulatory Approval.
- 2.3.4. The Company shall not allow third Parties to access or to use the Software, except for the White Label Partners specifically authorised in writing by the Grantor. By submitting a White Label Partner to obtain authorization, the Company ensures that the White Label Partner has all the Regulatory Approvals. For the purposes of this authorisation, the Company shall notify to the Grantor in writing with: (i) all White Label Partners and; (ii) all Gaming Sites through which the Casino Style Games shall be offered, including Gaming Sites utilised by White Label Partners. Nevertheless, the Grantor shall have the right to request by written notice, the Company to stop a White Label Partner from offering the Casino Styles Games, within five (5) days of receipt of the written notice or immediately, if so required by the Regulator or otherwise by the Applicable Laws, or where at the Grantor's sole discretion, the offering of the Casino Style Games by said White Label Partner could materially harm the Grantor's business.
- 2.3.5 Additional software in the form of released Updates that may be made available to the Company shall be subject to the same terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.
- 2.3.6 Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Grantor from using, developing, marketing, assigning, or otherwise disposing of the Software or of concepts embodied therein, in any manner, anywhere in the world; nor shall anything herein be construed to grant to the Company any rights in or to any other present or future software whether or not similar to the Software.
- 2.4 Intellectual Property Rights
- 2.4.1 Subject to Section 2.3, all Intellectual Property Rights, title and interest in and to the Software and Documentation, including Updates and Upgrades, whether or not developed at the request of the Company or paid for by the Company, shall at all times belong to the Grantor. The Company agrees not to challenge any Intellectual Property Rights which are subject to this Agreement. Any rights to any customised software commissioned by the Company and developed accordingly by the Grantor, will be agreed separately in writing on a case by case basis.

2.5 Disrupted Service

- 2.5.1 The Parties acknowledge that from time to time, as a result of circumstances beyond the Grantor reasonable control, the services provided under this Agreement by the Grantor may be temporarily disrupted. The Company acknowledges and accepts that neither Grantor nor any of its members, shareholders, directors, officers, employees or representatives and/or its respective Grantors, as applicable will be liable to the Company in any manner for any direct, special, indirect, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages, or damages for loss of profits or savings, in connection with these temporary disruptions.

2.6 Force Majeure

- 2.6.1 Except for the Company's payment responsibilities under Section 6 of this Agreement, neither Party shall be liable for any delay or failure to perform any material obligation under this Agreement, if the failure is due to an event beyond its reasonable control.

2.7 Government Legislation

- 2.7.1 It is hereby recognized by both Parties that their respective ability to carry out their obligations under this Agreement is subject to Applicable Law. Neither Grantor nor any of its members, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives will be liable to the Company or shall be held liable for any damages of any kind that may result from changes in the Applicable Law. The Parties shall promptly endeavor to implement such changes promptly in order to ensure continuation of the Business Activity under the changed legal framework.

2.8 Non-Solicitation

- 2.8.1 The Company shall not during the term of this Agreement and for a period of 24 (twenty four) months thereafter recruit or request services from employees or agents of the Grantor without the prior written consent of the Grantor.

2.9 Suggestions and Improvements

- 2.9.1 The Grantor may freely use any suggestions and improvements related to the Software that the Company provides in connection with this Agreement. In respect to such suggestions or improvements relate to an integrated part of the Software the Intellectual Property Rights therein shall vest in the Grantor as set out in Clause 2.3. The Grantor shall also be entitled to modify and further develop such suggestions and improvements.

2.10 Advertising

- 2.10.1 The Company shall bear all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the advertising, marketing and promotion of the Software to the Customers.

- 2.10.2 The Company shall observe the advertising guidelines set out below:

2.10.2.1 The use of the Gaming Site or referring to the Software shall include name and address of the Company, contact information for resolving consumer complaints and disputes, a statement outlining the jurisdiction from where the Gaming Services are conducted and a statement on the type of gaming license held by the Company, if any.

2.10.2.2 Advertising shall not be directed towards minors, include pornographic content, depict violence, be defamatory or include anything that is in breach of the Intellectual Property Rights.

2.10.2.3 The Company shall not send out unsolicited e-mail (spam) except to recipients that expressly have accepted to receive such e-mails.

- 2.10.2.4 The Parties agree that the Company shall ensure that all its marketing and advertising is made consistent with any and all applicable advertising laws and regulations, including any and all specific requirements related to advertising of online gaming and gambling services. It is the sole responsibility of the Company to be licensed and fully compliant with applicable legislation in any jurisdiction from where the Company accepts the Customers' bets.

2.11 ID Verification

- 2.11.1. The Company warrants and undertakes that the Customers are only admitted to play on the Casino Style Games after a due registration on the Gaming Site. The registration process and the procedure of the Registered Player's identity check shall be organized in accordance to money laundering and terrorist financing prevention act and other relevant acts and provisions of law, according to Applicable Law. The Registered Players will be able to play the Casino Style Games after due payment into an account.
- 2.11.2 The Company will perform all age and ID verifications according to the requirements of the Agreement and legislation of the Territory. The ID verification will take place in compliance with the provisions of legislation of the Territory on personal data protection, including, but not limited to General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), if any.

2.12 Fraud Control

- 2.12.1 The Company shall be responsible for maintaining strict fraud control and ensuring that chargebacks and other fraudulent behaviour is minimized.
- 2.12.2 The Grantor is not responsible for the fraudulent actions of the Company and its Customers.
- 2.12.3 On the detection of any fraudulent action the Company shall notify the Grantor as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not later than within 24 (twenty four) hours of such detection.
- 2.12.4 On the detection of any fraudulent action the Grantor shall notify the Company as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not later than within 24 (twenty four) hours of such detection.
- 2.12.5 If the Grantor bears financial losses as a result of such fraudulent action, the Company shall reimburse the Grantor damage equal to the loss amount suffered by the Grantor as a result of such fraudulent action within 15 (fifteen) calendar days of the loss being determined. The Company will at its own direct expense, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Grantor from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and costs arising out of or in connection with such fraudulent actions.
- 2.12.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Grantor shall not be liable with respect to any payments made to Customers as a result of or in connection with a defect other than as when the Company shall notify the Grantor in advance of any payment exceeding the amount of fifty thousand euros (€50,000) (a "payment notification"), and the Grantor shall, within forty eight (48) hours from receipt of the payment notification, communicate to Company either means a new, enhanced, improved, or updated version of the Licensed Software that may approval or rejection of such payment in the event it has discovered a defect causing an erroneous order of payment to a Customer, notwithstanding that a defect is discovered after the Company has made payments to Customers exceeding fifty thousand euros (€50,000), if the Company has made such payment without having received prior approval thereof by the Grantor as stipulated above, the Grantor shall have no liability to the Company or sub-licensees or any other third party, and the Grantor shall not be required to indemnify the Company or any sub-licensee or any other third party for any losses incurred or payments made as a result of such defect. In such case, the Company accepts full responsibility and liability should it make an unapproved payment, which upon later verification was found to be erroneous.

3. TERM AND TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

3.1 Term

- 3.1.1 Subject to Sections 3.2 - 3.4, this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall remain valid for a period of two (2) years from such date. Upon expiry of the initial two (2) years period, the Agreement shall be automatically renewed for successive one (1) year period, unless either Party gives notice to the other in writing, of its intention not to renew the Agreement, at least ninety (90) days prior to the termination date of that period.

Master Gaming License holder that this information will no longer be available after a period of five (5) years.

8.10.3 Handling of game tracking data. The Grantor reserves the right to purge game tracking data after six (6) months on a rolling basis. Game tracking data contains detailed game-round- and tracking information specific for each game-round.

8.10.4 Personal data protection. Handling of Registered Player Data by the Grantor in accordance to clause 8.10 will take place in compliance with the provisions of legislation of the Territory on personal data protection, including, but not limited to General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), if any.

8.11 Social Responsibility

8.11.1 Both Parties agree to conduct the Business Activity with the aim of providing socially responsible services in accordance with their respective Maltese remote gaming licences. Both Parties accept and understand the key importance of responsible gaming, and shall at all times observe, to the best of their ability the Parties' respective responsible gaming standards and applicable codes of conduct. In the event a Party does not remedy any reported infringement of any code of conduct within a reasonable time, the other Party may terminate the agreement without any additional costs and/or liabilities.

8.12 Confidentiality

8.12.1 During the term of this Agreement and for a period of 3 (three) years from the expiration or termination of this Agreement, a receiving Party shall (i) not disclose Confidential Information to any Third Party; (ii) restrict disclosure of Confidential Information to only those employees, agents or consultants of the receiving Party and affiliates, if any of the receiving Party who must be directly involved with the Confidential Information for the purposes of this Agreement and who are bound by confidentiality terms substantially similar to those in this Agreement; (iii) not reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Confidential Information for source discovery or other purposes; (iv) use the same degree of care as for its own information of like importance, but at least the care of a prudent businessman, in safeguarding against disclosure of Confidential Information; and (v) promptly notify the disclosing Party upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information and take reasonable steps to regain possession of the Confidential Information and prevent further unauthorized actions or other breach of this Agreement.

8.12.2 The disclosing Party consents to the disclosure of the Confidential Information to the extent strictly necessary for informing any subcontractors or suppliers of other Party who need to know such limited information in order to perform any assignments or handle any orders of a Party pursuant to this Agreement provided however that such subcontractors or suppliers shall first have agreed with the other Party to be bound by its confidentiality obligations hereunder or obligations which protect the Information to the extent protected hereunder in respect of such limited Confidential Information they will receive including appropriate obligations not to disclose the same to others and not to use it for other purposes as well as to return all such information to the Party upon completion of their assignment or other required performances.

8.12.3 The foregoing restrictions on use and disclosure of the Confidential Information do not apply to information that;

8.12.3.1 is in the possession of the receiving Party at the time of its disclosure and is not otherwise subject to obligations of confidentiality;

8.12.3.2 or becomes publicly known, through no wrongful act or omission of the receiving Party;

8.12.3.3 or is received without restriction from a Third Party free to disclose it without obligation to the disclosing Party;

8.12.3.4 or is developed independently by the receiving Party without reference to the Confidential Information;

8.12.3.5 or is required to be disclosed by the law, regulation, or court or governmental order, provided that the Party subject to such law, regulation or court or governmental order shall use reasonable efforts to minimise such disclosure and shall notify the other Party contemporaneously of such disclosure and provide the copy of such order or legal act to the opposite Party.

8.13 Trademarks Use of Name

8.13.1 Neither Party may use the other Party's name, trademarks, trade names, or other proprietary identifying symbols, or issue any press release or public statement relating to this Agreement without the prior written permission of the other Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement on the dates above, with full knowledge of its content and significance and intending to be legally bound by the terms hereof.

This Agreement has been signed in two counterparts.
