RE: Withdrawal of CGA / GCB License Application – FortuneQuake B.V.

Willemstad, February 24th, 2025

Dear Sirs,

We acknowledge the request for a formal letter explaining the reasons behind Fortunequake B.V.'s decision not to proceed with the direct license application with the Gaming Control Board (GCB).

Upon further review, the company has decided to withdraw the application due to the high-cost and complexity associated with acquiring the CGA/GCB license. Additionally, the prolonged and uncertain timeline of the application process played a significant role in this decision. Despite our efforts, there was no clear indication of when the application would be processed or finalized. Given these uncertainties, it was determined that these factors outweigh the benefits, especially in comparison to more feasible alternatives available in the market.

We appreciate your assistance throughout the application process and trust this decision will be understood. Should you require further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
