It is understood that when and as long as the Company has one and sole member the following shall apply:

- (i) Subject to the provisions and privileges herein contained, the Regulations of Part 1 of TABLE A of the First Schedule of the Companies Law, CAP. 113, with the exception of Regulations 11, 24, 25(a), 53, 58, 60, 77, 79, 88(a), 89 to 93, 98, 111(a), 112 and 113 shall apply and in the event of any conflict between them, the present Regulations contained in these Articles shall prevail.
- (ii) The Company is a private company and has one and sole member.

NATURE OF COMPANY

1. The Company is a private Company, and consequently:
 - (a) The right to transfer shares is restricted in the manner hereinafter prescribed.
 - (b) The number of members of the Company is limited to fifty (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company and persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were while in such employment members of the Company and have continued to be such after termination of such employment). Provided that where two or more persons hold jointly one or more shares in the Company, they shall for the purpose of this Article be treated as a single member.

The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

SHARE CAPITAL

3. The Company may from time to time by special resolution increase its share capital by such amount to be divided in shares of such amount and to be issued to such persons and under such terms as the resolution may prescribe.
4. All shares approved to be issued shall be offered to the members in proportion to the number of shares already held by them and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares which each member is entitled to be allotted and restricting the time in which the offer if not accepted, shall be deemed as having been declined and after which time or on receipt of a declaration by the member to whom such a notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may allot or otherwise dispose the same to such persons and under such conditions as they would deem fit.
5. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except as otherwise provided by these Articles or by law or by an order of a Court of

7. The Directors may, independently of any other provision of the Articles, but subject to Article 8 herein below, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason thereof, decline to register the transfer of any share to any person of whom they do not approve, whether or not it is a fully paid share, and may also decline to register the transfer of any share on which the Company has a legal lien.
8. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, the following transfers of shares to members or non-members of the Company, either by sale, exchange, gift, transmission by law or otherwise are freely permitted and the directors shall forthwith approve any such transfer and shall proceed to the registration of the same in the Register of Members of the Company:

For the purposes of this paragraph the words subsidiary and holding company have the usual meaning and the word "controlled company" means holding in such company more than 50% of the voting rights.
9. No transfer of shares to any member of the Company or not, which is not prescribed by these Articles to be freely allowed may be effected as long as any member wishes to buy such share at its share value as herein below provided.

10. Every member who desires to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the "vendor") shall give to the Company notice in writing of such desire (hereinafter called the "notice of sale"). The notice of sale must state the amount of shares the vendor desires to transfer and the amount that he considers to be the fair value for each share. The notice of sale shall constitute the Company as the vendor's agent for the sale of the shares to any member/s of the Company (hereinafter called the "buying members"), at the price fixed as aforesaid or if any buying member so elects, at the fair value fixed by the company's auditor (hereinafter called the "auditor") as described under regulation 14 below. A notice of sale cannot be revoked except with the prior permission of the directors.
11. The Company shall, within seven days from the service of the notice of sale as described above, notify in writing all its members of the number of shares offered for sale and of the fair value stated by the vendor. This notice must also include an invitation by the Company to all its members to state in writing, within twenty-eight days from the day of service of such notice, whether they wish to buy any of the shares offered for sale and in case of an affirmative answer, the maximum number of shares they wish to buy.

14. In case that the buying members or any of them disagree with the fair value of any share as stated by the vendor, they can submit a request to the auditor of the company to certify in writing within 10 days from the request, the amount which in his opinion represents the fair value. Such an amount shall be considered as the fair value of the shares. The auditor in exercising the above power shall be considered to be acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator and consequently the provisions of the Arbitration Law Cap. 4 shall not apply. The auditor in calculating the reasonable price may use the services of another professional i.e. chartered valuer.
15. In case the vendor omits to transfer the shares, which he is obliged to transfer under the above provisions, the Company shall proceed to collect the consideration for the shares and shall register in the Register of Members the names of the buying members as beneficial holders. The Company as trustee shall hold the consideration received as above for the vendor and a receipt by the Company of the consideration shall constitute a discharge of the buying members of the obligation to pay same. And upon the entry of their names on the Register of Members under this regulation no dispute can be entertained as to the validity of this procedure by any person.
16. In case the sale of all the shares offered for sale is not achieved in the manner above provided, the vendor shall be at liberty at any time within the period of three months after the expiration of the said period of 28 days and subject to regulation 7 above, to sell and transfer any of the un-disposed shares to any person and at any price.
