Dear Mr RUTENBERGS,

Subject Access – Section 45, Data Protection Act 2018

I am writing in response to your request for data that may be held about you on the Police National Computer (PNC).

The Data Protection Act 2018 places an obligation on the police when holding personal data to provide a copy of that data to the individual concerned on request, unless an exemption applies.

From the personal details supplied in your request, there is no data held about you on the PNC. ACRO does not have access to information held on local police systems.

This document does not constitute a Certificate of Good Character. Your disclosure is for personal use only – you are NOT obligated to provide this to a third party.

Should you have any queries, please contact us in writing or by email using the contact details below.

Yours sincerely,

D/Supt 24433

Head of ACRO Criminal Records Office
