Explanation of Source of Wealth and Source of Funds for the Business Operations

The business, established in June 2023.

- UBO Contribution:

As a startup business the Ultimate Beneficial Owner (UBO) is contributing with funds to cover the initial expenses, including licensing fees, legal costs, and corporate setup costs and will allocate sufficient funds to cover the upfront costs associated with launching the project.

- Profit Reinvestment:

All profits generated during the initial three years will be reinvested back into the project to fuel its growth and expansion.

- Contingency Planning:

While we believe that borrowed funds will not be necessary in the short term, we have contingency plans in place to address unexpected expenses that may arise.
