

Duch Antilles Managements N.V do not have any tasks or duties for Deep Dives day to day operations.

They are the proxy holder and as such they maintain the company statutory documents in good order and current.

Additionally, they are responsible for liaising with the KVK and other local authorities as needed