2 General Accounting Principles

Basis of Preparation

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards generally accepted and the provision of Book 2 Curaçao Civil Code. They have been prepared under the historical cost basis. Unless stated otherwise, all assets and liabilities are stated at their nominal value.

Accounting Method

The financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting. In accordance with this method of accounting, revenue is recognized in the period in which it is earned and expenses are recognized in the period in which they are incurred.

Foreign Currencies

The financial statements are presented in Euros (EUR or €). Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using daily ECB exchange rates. Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items are recognized as realized foreign exchange gains or losses on the income statement. Exchange differences arising on translating monetary items at the end of the reporting period are recognised as unrealized financial gains or losses.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash at bank and on hand. All cash is directly available to the Company.

Taxes

Profit tax liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be paid to the taxation authorities. Current profit taxes are recognised in the income statement and are adjusted for any differences between the estimated and actual tax payable in prior years.
