

The year nineteen seventy-six, on the fifth of the month of April, at ten minutes past five p.m. before Us Jean Georges Margue, deputy burgomaster, as a result of the incapacity of the burgomaster and the deputy burgomaster preceding Us in the order of appointment, carrying out the duties of registrar of the civil registry of the city of Luxembourg, canton of Luxembourg, in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg appeared:

Ivan Kalac, boy, born in Zadar, Yugoslavia, on three November nineteen fifty-two, domiciled in Luxembourg, number 38, rue de Hesperange, son of the spouses Marko Kalac, pump attendant, and Jela Cavic, cleaner, domiciled in Luxembourg on the one hand and

Christiane Atten, schoolteacher, born in Luxembourg on eighteen April nineteen fifty-four, domiciled in Bertrange, daughter of the spouses Andre Ernest Atten, civil servant and Catherine Henriette Theis, unemployed, domiciled in Bertrange, on the other hand.

Who asked Us to proceed to the celebration of the marriage agreed between them and whose publications were made in Luxembourg and in Bertrange on twenty-four March this year.

After reading all the documents produced, initialled by Us and by the parties to remain appended to the marriage certificate, and articles 212, 213, paragraph 1, 214 paragraphs 1 and 3 and 215 first sentence of the Civil Code, We asked the future husband and wife if they wanted to be husband and wife: each of them having answered separately and positively, We declare in the name of the law that Ivan Kalac and Christiane Atten are married.

All this was done publicly in Luxembourg at the town hall.

And before closing this deed, having questioned the future spouses and the persons Present authorising the marriage, whether a marriage contract has been drawn up, and if so, when and before which notary, the spouses declared that no such contract was drawn up.

Of all that precedes We drew up this deed which, after reading, was signed by Us and the parties.
