Re: Antoine Raineau

I, Antoine Raineau, provide the following declaration as part of the Know Your Customer (KYC) requirements for the application of a Curaçao eGaming licence.

I am a member of the Raineau family group, Raineaugroup (www.raineaugroup.com), a family-owned business with extensive experience in the development and operation of hotels, casinos, and real estate projects in Europe, Africa, and Latin America.

As part of the family business, I hold various equity interests in companies operating in the fields of real estate and casino operations. In parallel, I have personally developed the online gaming activity of the group and today serve as the sole shareholder and Chief Executive Officer of Alt Bet Exchange B.V.

My shareholdings are as follows:

SCI Casino du Golfe – 1.025% (France): Real estate assets related to casino operations in France.

SCI Chambéry Fizeau – 2.55% (France): Real estate holdings in residential and commercial buildings in France.

SCI Alfakayar – 7.5% (France): Real estate holdings in residential and commercial buildings in France.

SCI Jocelyn Investissement – 41% (France): Real estate development company in France.

SIETHEL – 10% (Luxembourg): Holding company with participation in casino operations in Egypt, including:

Fairmont Nile City Casino, Cairo

Sinai Grand Casino, Sharm el Sheikh

Giza Palace Casino, Cairo (under development)

Marlo LLC – 9% (Georgia): Black Opal Casino, Tbilisi.

Alt Bet Exchange B.V. – 100% (Curaçao): Online gaming operations through websites viparabclub.com, tuskcasino.com, barawin.com.

These participations and the family business structure constitute the legitimate source of my wealth and financial capacity as a shareholder.

As a family business, Raineaugroup naturally supports its members when required, including through financing if expansion needs arise. No formal arrangements are in place or necessary within the family context. To date, such support has not been required, as Alt Bet has achieved sustained growth through its own operations.

Sincerely,

Antoine Raineau
