certificate(s) to the acquirer(s). —

Restrictions of transfer/general duty of notification

Article 12

1. A transfer of shares is contingent on the shares first having been offered for sale to the shareholders in the manner prescribed in the following paragraphs.
2. The shareholder, hereinafter referred to as "offeror", shall notify the board of managing directors of the shares he wishes to transfer.
3. Such notification shall constitute an offer to the co-shareholders to sell the shares. Where the company holds shares in the company's capital it shall be understood as being a co-shareholder only if the offeror in his offer has agreed thereto.
The share price shall, unless the shareholders unanimously agree otherwise, be determined by one or more independent experts to be appointed by the shareholders by mutual agreement. If the shareholders fail to reach agreement on this matter within six weeks of receipt of notice of the offer referred to in paragraph 5 below, a petition to appoint three independent experts shall be brought by either party before the Court of First Instance in Curaçao.
4. The experts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be empowered to inspect the books and documents of the company and to obtain any information assisting the task of valuation.
5. The board of managing directors shall within fourteen days of receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 2 notify the co-shareholders of the offer made by the offeror and shall notify each shareholder of the share price within fourteen days of the share price being established by the experts or agreed by the shareholders.
6. Notwithstanding what is provided in paragraph 8, the board of managing directors, if notified by each co-shareholder within the period stipulated in that paragraph, shall without delay notify the offeror that the offer has not or not fully been taken up.
7. Shareholders who intend to purchase the shares offered for sale shall notify the board of managing directors of that intention within thirty days of receiving notification of the share price in accordance with paragraph 5.
8. The board of managing directors shall allot the offered shares to the applicants and shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of the allocation within fourteen days of expiry of the period specified in paragraph 7.
To the extent that the shares have not been allotted the board of managing directors shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of that fact within the period referred to in this paragraph.
9. The shares shall be allotted by the board of managing directors as follows:
 - a. pro rata to the nominal value of the shares held by the applicants;
 - b. shares may be allotted to the company only if no application for such shares has been made by the other co-shareholders;

- c. to the extent that shares cannot be allotted on the basis of _____ proportionality the allotment shall be determined by the drawing of _____ lots; _____ on the understanding in all matters that no-one may be allotted a greater number of shares than that applicant has applied for. _____
10. The offeror may withdraw his offer at any time provided he does so _____ within one month after he has been notified of the shareholders to whom and at what price he may sell the shares offered. _____
11. The shares sold shall, against immediate payment of the purchase price, be transferred within eight days of expiration of the period during which _____ the offer may be withdrawn. _____
12. The offeror may freely transfer the offered shares within a period of three months following the notification referred to in paragraph 8 has been _____ given that the offer has not or not fully been taken up. _____
13. The experts referred to in paragraph 3 shall determine fairly who shall _____ bear the costs of valuation. They may determine that the company shall _____ bear the costs wholly or in part. _____
14. The provisions of this Article shall, as far as possible, apply mutatis _____ mutandis to the disposal of shares purchased or otherwise acquired by _____ the company. _____
15. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to transfers to which every _____ shareholder has notified the company that observance of the provisions _____ may be waived. _____
Transfers of shares may then take place only within the succeeding _____ period of three months. _____

Special duty of notification

Article 13

1. In the event of the death, grant of suspension of payment, bankruptcy, _____ guardianship or dissolution of the matrimonial property regime of a _____ shareholder otherwise than upon death, as well as upon the dissolution _____ of a legal person being a shareholder and where a legal person being a _____ shareholder ceases to exist in consequence of a legal merger, the _____ shares shall be offered to the company in accordance with the following _____ paragraphs. _____
2. If an obligation exists to offer shares for sale the provisions of Article 12 _____ shall apply mutatis mutandis except that the offeror: _____
- a. shall not have the right to withdraw the offer in accordance with _____ paragraph 10 of that Article; _____
- b. may retain the shares where the offer has not or not fully been taken _____ up. _____
3. The person under an obligation to offer for sale one or more shares shall _____ within thirty days of the obligation arising - in the case referred to in _____ paragraph 6 under b, upon expiration of the period of time referred to in _____ that paragraph - notify the board of managing directors of the offer to _____ sell. In the absence of notification the board of managing directors shall _____ inform the person under the obligation to offer shares for sale of such _____ failure to notify and bring the terms of the preceding sentence to his _____ attention. _____

If that person still fails to notify the company within eight days the _____ company shall offer the shares for sale on behalf of the shareholder _____ concerned and if all of the shares offered for sale are taken up shall _____ transfer the shares to the purchaser(s) upon payment of the purchase _____ price. The company possesses an irrevocable power so to act. _____

4. The company shall, in the event of a transfer of shares pursuant to the _____ preceding paragraph, pay to the person or persons on whose behalf the _____ offer was made the net balance of the purchase price after deduction of _____ any costs attaching to the transaction. _____
5. In consequence of the obligation to offer shares for sale pursuant to the _____ provisions of this Article and while that obligation exists, the rights _____ attaching to a share, in so far as the shareholder is entitled to such _____ rights, cannot be exercised while and for as long as the shareholder fails _____ to fulfil that obligation. _____
6. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply: _____
 - a. where all the remaining shareholders have given notice of waiver of _____ the obligation to satisfy those provisions; _____
 - b. where, in the event of the dissolution of the matrimonial property _____ regime otherwise than upon the death of a shareholder, the shares _____ are transferred within a period of twenty-four months of the _____ dissolution to the spouse to whose share of the matrimonial property _____ the shares attach; _____

5. The board of managing directors shall not make an interim distribution of profits unless the provision of paragraph 2 has been satisfied.

Dividends

Article 20

The dividends paid on shares may be claimed by the shareholder one month after approval of the annual accounts unless the general meeting determines another period. Such claims shall become prescribed upon expiry of a period of five years.

A dividend not claimed within a period of five years from the moment such claim may be entered shall vest in the company.

The General Meeting of Shareholders

Article 21

1. General meetings of shareholders shall be held in Curaçao.
2. A general meeting shall be held annually within a period not exceeding nine months from the end of the company's financial year.
The following shall be treated during that meeting:
 - a. the annual accounts;
 - b. proposals placed on the agenda by the board of managing directors or by one or more shareholders. Proposals by shareholders or other persons with the right to vote on shares must be submitted in writing, with an explanatory note, to the board of managing directors before the notice convening the meeting is sent;
 - c. the designation of a person meant in paragraph 6 of article 14 of these articles of incorporation;
 - d. any other business, on the understanding that no legally valid resolutions may be passed in respect of business not specified in the notice convening the meeting as being on the agenda, or in any supplementary convening notice sent within the period set for giving notice convening the meeting, unless the resolution is passed unanimously at a meeting attended by every shareholder and any other person who has a right to vote on shares, or at which such persons are represented.
3. In respect of a decision establishing a period of extension within the meaning of Article 17 paragraph 2 above the annual accounts and annual report shall be treated in conformity with that decision.
4. General meetings shall be held as frequently as the board of managing directors or the supervisory board, if any, convene them. The board of managing directors shall be obliged to convene a general meeting when requested in writing with a detailed explanation of the business to be considered by one or more shareholders.

Convening the General Meeting

Article 22

1. Each shareholder and each managing and supervisory director is entitled to attend, either in person or by written proxy, the general meeting and to address the meeting.
Shares for which no votes may be cast shall not be taken into account in determining to what extent a shareholder is present or represented.
2. The managing and supervisory directors and shareholders and the persons who have a right to vote on shares shall be summoned to a general meeting by written notice specifying a period of summons of at least twelve days, excluding the day of despatch and the day of receipt. The convening notice shall be sent to the addresses of the shareholders and the persons who have a right to vote on shares entered in the register of shareholders. In case the address of one or more shareholders is not known, the convocation must be published in the official gazette of Curaçao.
3. Without prejudice to the statutory provisions or the law relating to special decisions such as those in respect of legal merger and amendment of the articles of association, the convening notice shall state the business to be considered.
4. If the requirements of the paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article were not met, no legally valid resolutions may be passed except unanimously at a meeting attended by every shareholder and other persons with the right to vote on shares or at which such persons are represented.
5. Each managing director and each supervisory director, if any, is authorised to be present at the general meeting and as such he has a consultative voice.

Chairing the General Meeting

Article 23

1. The general meeting shall be chaired by a person designated as chairman by the general meeting. The minutes of the business transacted at the general meeting shall be kept by the secretary appointed by the general meeting.
2. The board of managing directors shall be empowered to order that a notarial report of the business transacted at the general meeting shall be executed, the costs thereof to be borne by the company.
3. If a notarial report is not executed, the minutes of the business transacted at the general meeting shall be signed by the chairman and by the secretary who took the minutes during that meeting as complete and final.
4. The board of managing directors shall keep the minutes of the general meeting for a period of at least ten years at the office of the company for inspection by any shareholder or any other person who has a right of pledge or a usufructuary right on shares, at whose request a copy of such minutes shall be issued at not more than cost price.

Passing of resolutions

Article 24

1. Each share shall entitle the shareholder to cast one vote.
2. The resolutions of the general meeting shall be passed by an absolute majority of the votes cast, except in those cases where a greater majority is required by these articles or by the law.
3. Votes shall be cast verbally in respect of business other than persons; votes cast in respect of persons shall be in writing and unsigned. If a ballot in respect of persons fails to secure an absolute majority a second ballot shall be held between the two persons for whom the most votes were cast at the first ballot.
4. If a vote in respect of business other than persons results in a tie the board of managing directors shall have the decisive vote. If a vote in respect of persons results in a tie the proposal shall be determined by the drawing of lots.
5. Blank votes shall be deemed not to have been cast.
6. No vote may be cast at the general meeting for a share held by the company.

Shares which by virtue of the above possess no voting rights shall not be taken into account in determining to what extent capital is represented at the general meeting.

Passing of resolutions other than in a general meeting

Article 25

Any resolution that may be passed in a general meeting may also be taken outside such meeting provided every person entitled to attend the meeting has agreed in writing to this way of adopting resolutions without a meeting being held.

Special resolutions

Article 26

1. A resolution to amend these articles or to wind up the company shall be passed only in a general meeting at which not less than a minimum of two thirds of the issued capital is represented and by a majority of not less than three quarters of the votes cast.
A resolution to merge may only be taken unanimously at a general meeting of shareholders at which two thirds of the issued capital is represented.
2. If the capital referred to in the preceding paragraph is not represented another meeting shall be convened and shall be held within one month but not earlier than fifteen days of the first meeting at which and without reference to the capital there represented the resolution to amend the articles of incorporation or to dissolve the company may be passed by a majority of not less than three quarters of the votes cast, while the resolutions to merge shall be taken with unanimous vote.

The notice convening this meeting shall state that it is a second meeting.

Convening notices and other notices

Article 27

1. Convening notices and other notices sent by or to the company shall be — in writing sent by mail, whether or not recorded, telefax or by e-mail. — Messages intended for shareholders shall be sent to the address known — to the company. —
2. Notices that by virtue of law or the articles of association must be sent to the general meeting may be effected by inclusion in the notice convening the general meeting. —

Dissolution
