4. The general meeting has the power to resolve to wholly or partially pay back to the shareholders the amount of the paid in capital surplus or to exempt the shareholders from their obligation to pay a capital surplus, provided that after such repayment or exemption the equity of the company is at least equal to the nominal capital.

Transfer of Shares

Article 11

1. Shares are transferred by means of a deed of transfer signed by the parties and either service of that deed to the company by a bailiff or acknowledgment of the transfer by the company. Acknowledgment is effected by a signed note on the deed of transfer or a written statement from the company addressed to the acquirer(s). If it concerns shares that are still subject to a payment obligation or additional payment obligation, then recognition can only take place if the deed of transfer bears a fixed date.
2. If a share certificate has been issued, that document, provided with a transfer note signed by the parties, may serve as a deed of transfer.
3. Provided the shares are fully paid up, the transfer may also take place by means of a written statement from the person entitled to that share addressed to the company, stating the transfer, with a subsequent written statement from the acquirer(s) addressed to the company, followed by a written statement of recognition issued by the company and addressed to both parties.

Restrictions of transfer/general duty of notification

Article 12

1. A transfer of shares is contingent on the shares first having been offered for sale to the shareholders in the manner prescribed in the following paragraphs.
2. The shareholder, who wishes to alienate one or more of his shares, is obliged to alienate those shares only to a co-shareholder or to a person, who has given a written statement to the managing board that he agrees to the status of the company as a partnership (in Dutch "maatschap") as meant in the General National Ordinance on Taxes ("Algemene Landsverordening Landsbelastingen").
3. Such notification shall constitute an offer to the co-shareholders to buy the shares. Where the company holds shares in the company's capital it shall be understood as being a co-shareholder only if the offeror in his offer has agreed thereto.
The share price shall, unless the shareholders unanimously agree otherwise, be determined by one (1) or more independent experts to be appointed by the shareholders by mutual agreement. If the shareholders fail to reach agreement on this matter within six (6) weeks of receipt of notice of the offer referred to in paragraph 5 below, a petition to appoint three (3) independent experts shall be brought by either party before the Court of First Instance in Curaçao.

4. The experts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be empowered – to inspect the books and documents of the company and to obtain any – information assisting the task of valuation. _____
5. The board of managing directors shall within fourteen (14) days of _____ receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 2 notify the co-_____ shareholders of the offer made by the offeror and shall notify each _____ shareholder of the share price within fourteen (14) days of the share _____ price being established by the experts or agreed by the shareholders. _____
6. Notwithstanding what is provided in paragraph 8, the board of managing directors, if notified by each co-shareholder within the period stipulated – in that paragraph, shall without delay notify the offeror that the offer has – not or not fully been taken up. _____
7. Shareholders who intend to purchase the shares offered for sale shall – notify the board of managing directors of that intention within thirty (30) – days of receiving notification of the share price in accordance with _____ paragraph 5. _____
8. The board of managing directors shall allot the offered shares to the _____ applicants and shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of the _____ allocation within fourteen (14) days of expiry of the period specified in – paragraph 7. _____
To the extent that the shares have not been allotted the board of _____ managing directors shall notify the offeror and each shareholder of that – fact within the period referred to in this paragraph. _____
9. The shares shall be allotted by the board of managing directors as _____ follows: _____
 - a. pro rata to the nominal value of the shares held by the applicants; _____
 - b. shares may be allotted to the company only if no application for such shares has been made by the other co-shareholders; _____
 - c. to the extent that shares cannot be allotted on the basis of _____ proportionality the allotment shall be determined by the drawing of – lots, _____on the understanding in all matters that no-one may be allotted a greater number of shares than that applicant has applied for. _____
10. The offeror may withdraw his offer at any time provided he does so – within one (1) month after he has been notified of the shareholders to – whom and at what price he may sell the shares offered. _____
11. The shares sold shall, against immediate payment of the purchase price, be transferred within eight (8) days of expiration of the period during – which the offer may be withdrawn. _____
12. The offeror may freely transfer the offered shares within a period of three (3) months following the notification referred to in paragraph 8 has been – given that the offer has not or not fully been taken up. _____
13. The experts referred to in paragraph 3 shall determine fairly who shall – bear the costs of valuation. They may determine that the company shall – bear the costs wholly or in part. _____

14. The provisions of this article shall, as far as possible, apply mutatis mutandis to the disposal of shares purchased or otherwise acquired by the company.
15. The provisions of this article shall not apply to transfers to which every shareholder has notified the company that observance of the provisions may be waived.
Transfers of shares may then take place only within the succeeding period of three (3) months.

Special duty of notification

Article 13

1. In the event of the death, grant of suspension of payment, bankruptcy, guardianship or dissolution of the matrimonial property regime of a shareholder otherwise than upon death, as well as upon the dissolution of a legal person being a shareholder and where a legal person being a shareholder ceases to exist in consequence of a legal merger, the shares shall be offered to the company in accordance with the following paragraphs.
2. If an obligation exists to offer shares for sale the provisions of article 12 shall apply mutatis mutandis except that the offeror:
 - a. shall not have the right to withdraw the offer in accordance with paragraph 10 of that article;
 - b. may retain the shares where the offer has not or not fully been taken up.
3. The person under an obligation to offer for sale one or more shares shall within thirty (30) days of the obligation arising - in the case referred to in paragraph 6 under b, upon expiration of the period of time referred to in that paragraph - notify the board of managing directors of the offer to sell. In the absence of notification the board of managing directors shall inform the person under the obligation to offer shares for sale of such failure to notify and bring the terms of the preceding sentence to his attention.
If that person still fails to notify the company within eight days the company shall offer the shares for sale on behalf of the shareholder concerned and if all of the shares offered for sale are taken up shall transfer the shares to the purchaser(s) upon payment of the purchase price. The company possesses an irrevocable power so to act.
4. The company shall, in the event of a transfer of shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph, pay to the person or persons on whose behalf the offer was made the net balance of the purchase price after deduction of any costs attaching to the transaction.
5. In consequence of the obligation to offer shares for sale pursuant to the provisions of this article and while that obligation exists, the rights attaching to a share, in so far as the shareholder is entitled to such rights, cannot be exercised while and for as long as the shareholder fails to fulfil that obligation.
6. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply:

- a. where all the remaining shareholders have given notice of waiver of — the obligation to satisfy those provisions; _____
- b. where, in the event of the dissolution of the matrimonial property — regime otherwise than upon the death of a shareholder, the shares — are transferred within a period of twenty-four (24) months of the — dissolution to the spouse to whose share of the matrimonial property — the shares attach. _____
