8. Amendments and supplements

This Agreement can solely be amended or supplemented by means of a document signed by all Parties, which document will be attached to this Agreement.

9. Partial invalidity, continuing obligations

1. If one or more article of this Agreement were to be null and void or non-binding in another way, this does not affect the validity of the other articles of this Agreement, unless the non-binding provisions regards the essence of the Agreement and the other provisions not being affected raise such objections with one of the Parties that reasonableness and fairness order the other articles to be non-binding as well. In both cases Parties will then in mutual consultation and in the spirit of this Agreement amend this Agreement to the extent necessary, in the sense that the non-binding articles will be replaced by articles that will differ as little as possible from the related non-binding articles.
2. Obligations that by their nature are destined to also continue after termination, continue to exist after termination of this Agreement.

10. Remedies

1. Failure to execute, or a delay in the execution, of a right or remedy arising from the underlying Agreement or the law, will not impair the execution of this right or remedy or another right and/or remedy in any way whatsoever.
2. Partial execution of a right, or remedy arising from this Agreement or the law, as yet does not obstruct fully executing this right or remedy, or of the execution of another right or remedy.
3. The rights and remedies arising from the underlying Agreement are complementary and do not exclude any rights or remedies arising from the law.

10. Applicable law, regulation on disputes

1. This Agreement is governed by the laws of Curaçao.
2. A dispute arises if one of the Parties informs the other Party of such in writing.
3. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which is an original and which together have the same effect as if each Party had signed the same document. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties shall deliver fully executed original signature copies of this Agreement to one another as soon as practicable following execution.
4. Any disputes arising under this Agreement that Parties cannot settle out of Court, are settled in first instance before the competent court of Curaçao.

11. Miscellaneous

1. Parties renounce any right they may have to demand the dissolution or cancellation of this Agreement.
2. This Agreement can solely be amended or supplemented by means of a document signed by all Parties which document will be attached to this Agreement.
3. The preamble is an integral part of this Agreement.

4. Titles of articles in this Agreement are there purely for identification purposes, and no rights can be derived from them.
5. Unless the context shows differently, the singular can also be denoted as the plural and vice versa. References to Parties will also comprise references to their legal successor(s) under universal or particular title.
6. 'He' can also be read as 'she' just as under 'him and his' 'her' can be read.
7. The (office) addresses of Parties stated in the heading of this Agreement are addresses to which Parties can validly send notifications.
8. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts.

Thus agreed upon on October 1, 2025.
