- 5.1.2. The Distributor will calculate and determine the Licence Fee payment owed to the Distributor by the Operator in accordance with Annex 1 hereto. After receiving the monthly Licence Fee payment invoice from the Distributor, the Operator shall have ten (10) days to settle and pay such invoice. The tenth (10.) day is the last day to submit the payment by the Operator.
- 5.1.3. In case that the Operator is in delay with its payment of the monthly Licence Fee to the Distributor, the Distributor may, at its discretion, send a written notice to the Operator.
- 5.1.4. The Distributor shall have the right, without prejudice to its other rights or remedies, to block the access of the Operator to the Licensed Software if the Operator is in delay with payment of the monthly Licence Fee in accordance with the paragraph 5.1.2. of this Agreement.
- 5.2. Parties agree that in case of any dispute regarding the due amount the backoffice data of the Distributor shall be considered and shall be the decisive basis for the calculation of the Licence Fee.
- 5.3. The Operator hereby acknowledges that the Distributor's Licence Fee under this Agreement is strictly a net amount and is not inclusive of any foreign, state, value added tax, withholding, or other taxes, customs duties, similar tariffs and fees, or any other tax imposed or otherwise levied by any regulatory authority, that the Operator may be required to pay other than taxes on the Distributor's income.
- 5.4. The Operator hereby agrees and undertakes to pay any such tax, value added tax or levy or any costs incurred by the Distributor.

If the monthly GGR, generated by a certain website on the Licensed Software of a specific Provider, is negative, the Distributor is entitled to zero out such negative GGR for the purpose of calculating the Licence Fee.
- 5.9. If a bug or malfunction of the Licensed Software leads to a bet and/or win being voided by the Provider, the Distributor shall consider such bet and/or win as voided as well and shall not take the voided bet and/or win into account for the purpose of calculation of the Operator's GGR and of the Licence Fee. The course of Distributor's action described in this paragraph will be based on how the affected bets/wins are treated by the Provider but will be determined by the Distributor at its own discretion and may be changed from time to time. It is the Operator's responsibility to secure in its contracts with End Users (via terms & conditions or otherwise) its right to refuse paying out a win that occurred due to malfunction of the Licensed Software and that is voided by the Provider for that reason.

- 5.10. If the Operator wishes to pay any amount stipulated in this Agreement (Licence Fee, Deposit etc.) in a cryptocurrency, a processing fee of 2.5 % (two point five percent) of the original amount due must be paid by the Operator in addition to the original amount.

 - 8.7.2. The Operator must not publish any advertising, promotional or marketing materials which: encourage anyone to break the law; target individuals under the legal gambling age; are false or untruthful about the chances of winning or about the expected return to an individual; suggest that gambling is a form of a financial investment; suggest that skill can influence the games which are purely games of chance; exceed the limits of decency.
 - 8.7.3. Branding, advertising and promotion of any games that are marked as "Branded" may be based only on materials approved by the Distributor in advance.
 - 8.7.4. The Operator must comply with any reasonable marketing rules (which relate to the Operator's use of the Licensed Software) notified to it by the Distributor.

IX. PROHIBITION OF INTERFERENCE WITH THE LICENSED SOFTWARE

Annex 3 Excluded Territories

In accordance with section 8.1.4. of the Agreement, the Licensed Software cannot be made available for End Users residing in, or making bets from, countries where such activity is illegal or otherwise not allowed.

The following table further outlines the specific territorial exemptions of the individual brands distributed under the Agreement. Please do note that the below list should not be viewed as exhaustive as there may be other countries where online gambling is banned which are not specifically excluded by the providers, yet under the Agreement the Licensed Software still cannot be made available in such territories. Please note that the below specified list of excluded territories may be unilaterally updated by the Distributor at any time.

If a country is written next to a certain provider in bold letters, it means that if the Operator proves that it holds a valid local Gambling Licence from that country (and if the Distributor confirms sufficiency of such licence), the Operator may use the games of the Provider, by which the country is written in bold letters, in the given country (i.e. the given country shall not be considered as banned in connection with the respective Provider).

Furthermore, the table below also outlines specific license requirements of individual Providers with regard to the Operators using their Licensed Software (i.e. countries whose Gambling Licence the Provider requires its Operators to have). The Operator may not be granted access to the given Provider's games, until the Operator submits the required Gambling Licence to the Distributor and until it is then confirmed by the Provider.
